

Mad4Waves - Back from the Atlantic!

Dear Bishops Community

Towards the end of last year, four ODs took on one of the toughest endurance challenges on the planet: rowing unaided across the Atlantic Ocean!

Cole Barnard (2014B), Grant Soll (2014W), Lee Gordon (2014M), and Matt Boynton (2014W) went on to become the youngest four ever to do so, breaking a Guinness World Record.

Their incredible journey of endurance is a tale not to be missed. From rowing alongside orcas and other wildlife, bumping into a fellow OD in the middle of the Atlantic, and the most incredible acts of camaraderie that kept their spirits alive in the darkest of hours.

So, join us for an in-depth presentation of their 5500km row across the Atlantic:
