Cultural

Art Exhibition

The opening of the Bishops Class of 2018 Art Exhibition took place on Friday 2 November.

There was an impressive range of styles and approaches to be seen in the artwork on display by Jack Graham, Campbell Reyburn, William Frater, Gus Monday, Tom Newbury, Linda Farr, Peter Thacker, Jason Pittaway, Fergus Alexander, David Nivison, James Shuttleworth and Michael Beckurts

The prize winners for The Sophy Gray OD Art Prize were as follows: in first place, Michael Beckurts for his animated film and in second place, David Nivison for his charcoal drawing depicting two dancers. Commendations were awarded to Peter Thacker, Gus Monday and Linda Farr.

In her address at the opening of the exhibition, judge of the Sophy Gray Prize associate professor Virginia MacKenny from the Michaelis School, UCT, commended the boys for the high quality of their work, in particular the strength and quality of their drawing.

Sport

Sports Leadership

We would like to congratulate Luke Richardson on being voted Head of the Sports Leadership Committee and Oliver Stewart as Secretary for 2019.

Hockey Umpiring

In recognition and appreciation of the many hours of umpiring they have done for Bishops Hockey over the last three years, Service Ties are awarded to Euan Musselwhite and Duncan Edelstein. Well done.

Athletics Spring Meetings

It has been a successful start to the athletics season with three Bishops athletes taking home a trophy for the Best Performance of the Day at the respective Spring Meetings. Congratulations to Oliver Stewart (who set a new record for the mile), Elyas Ayyoub and Suleiman Hartzenberg for these achievements. We look forward to seeing them in action at Sports Day and Triangular next year.

General

All Rounder's Tie

Oliver Kane-Smith and Nic Gleeson are to be congratulated on being awarded All Rounders Ties.
